*** A student may initiate an official withdrawal from a course or courses through the 10th week of classes. Beginning with the second week of classes, students will be billed for a portion of the tuition for each course, according to the schedule that appears under the heading "NICC Refund Policy" in this catalog. After the 10th week, students will not be able to withdraw from a course and will be assigned a letter grade for the course. Officially withdrawing from a course(s) does not affect the student's grade point average (GPA). However, it may affect the student's financial aid status. Student will be fully responsible for any financial costs. Refer to the "FINANCIAL AID: SATISFACTORY PROGRESS" section of this catalog for more information. ***
